

BENOIT MORIN □ Consultant Conférencier □

Benoit is passionate about face to face marketing and public speaking communication. His personable nature and in-depth understanding of human communication have made him a master in the art of face to face marketing.

For the past 14 years, he has trained hundreds of people and spoken before audiences numbering into the thousands. Benoit has also collaborated and helped numerous companies to maximize their participation at trade shows in Canada in the USA and in Asia.

Curious, dedicated and approachable, Benoit always strives to offer the best. His ability to generate new opportunities and ideas that are simple yet effective combined with his extensive experience in business, trade shows and networking have been a major asset. He has not only helped people reach their business objectives, but surpass them.