

GUTHRIE STEWART

Senior Vice President, Global Head of Private Investments

Guthrie Stewart joined PSP Investments in September 2015. Prior to joining PSP, Mr. Stewart acted as a corporate director and advisor for various public and private enterprises and for investment funds, including Tandem Expansion Fund (private equity), Chairman of GBC America (public mutual fund), Chairman of Orbit Garant (TSX-OGD), and the Faculty Advisory Board of the McGill Desautels Faculty of Management. Mr. Stewart has extensive experience in private equity, acquisitions and corporate governance. Until 2008, he was a partner of EdgeStone Capital, one of Canada's largest private equity buy-out and venture capital firms. Prior to that, for 15 years he was an executive in the telecommunications industry (international and mobile networks), including CEO of Teleglobe Canada and EVP, Global Development of Teleglobe Inc. and a founding officer of what is now Bell Mobility. Mr. Stewart began his career as a corporate and acquisitions lawyer in Toronto with Osler.

Mr. Stewart is a graduate of INSEAD (MBA) in Europe and Osgoode Hall Law School (Toronto), and he studied Honours Science at Queen's University (Kingston). He also has completed the I.C.D. certification program for corporate directors through Rotman-McGill.
