

MARIO D. MORRONE

Executive Vice-president, Strategy and Capital Allocation
Ivanhoé Cambridge

ROLE: Mario D. Morrone leads the development of Ivanhoé Cambridge's strategic plan and supervises its implementation. He is responsible for the allocation of capital and for monitoring the portfolio's overall performance. Mr. Morrone oversees the research and strategic market analysis from both the fundamental and capital markets perspective. He also participates in a number of Committees, notably the Investment Committee at Ivanhoé Cambridge and the Investment and Risk Committee at Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec

PROFILE: M. Morrone is an experienced senior manager with solid experience in finance and investments, as well as pension fund management and administration. He joined the Association de bienfaisance et de retraite des policiers et policières de la Ville de Montréal (ABRPPVM) in 2001 as Vice President, Operations and Human Resources, and as a member of the Board of Directors. In 2010, he was appointed President and CEO of the ABRPPVM and assumed responsibility for the administration of pension plans, with total assets under management of $4 billion. In this role, he also chaired the Board of Directors and the Investment Committee. Prior to his recent appointment as Executive Vice President, he also served as a member of the Ivanhoé Cambridge Board of Directors and as a member of the Audit Committee.

Mr. Morrone holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a specialisation in Finance from Concordia University.
