

Jean-François Bureau, CFA

Senior Vice President and Chief Risk Officer

J.F. Bureau has more than 25 years of experience in the North American and European financial markets. As PSP Investments' Senior Vice President and Chief Risk Officer, J.F. Bureau is responsible for creating an integrated approach to managing a full spectrum of risks and supporting enterprise-wide activities by establishing effective risk management practices and processes.

Since joining PSP Investments in March 2010, he has built an effective risk structure that includes a total fund perspective in a changing risk landscape.

Prior to joining PSP Investments, J.F. Bureau held executive finance positions at a number of companies, notably as Vice President, Credit - Specialized Products at National Bank of Canada, Vice President, Corporate Projects – M&A at Groupe Vidéotron Itée, and Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at DiagnoCure.

J.F. has a Master's degree in Finance from Université Laval and is a CFA charterholder.