

Richard D. Jacobson
Managing Director
Golub Capital

Richard Jacobson is a Managing Director of Golub Capital, a nationally recognized credit asset manager with an award-winning middle market lending business. Golub Capital manages over $25 billion in capital for institutional investors and family offices offering tailored solutions for investors' credit asset strategies. The firm is a leading middle market lender to leveraged companies in the U.S. Golub Capital has been a top 3 U.S. Middle Market Bookrunner each year from 2008 through Q1 2018 for senior secured loans of up to $500 million for leveraged buyouts. In 2018, Golub Capital won two Private Debt Investor awards in the Americas category: "Senior Lender of the Year" and "Business Development Company of the Year." The firm also won Mergers & Acquisitions' 10th annual M&A Mid-Market Award for "Lender of the Year" in 2017.

Mr. Jacobson joined Golub Capital in 2014 and is a Managing Director in the Business Development group. He is responsible for managing existing and new client relationships across all investment offerings for the Firm. Prior to joining Golub Capital, Mr. Jacobson worked at Stern Capital, a private investment firm, where he led the firm's expansion into private debt and equity transactions. Prior to this position, Mr. Jacobson served as a Managing Director and one of four partners overseeing Indosuez Capital's Merchant Banking group, where he was a member of the Investment Committee and oversaw the group's origination and structuring of senior loans, mezzanine debt and private equity co-investments. Prior to that, Mr. Jacobson was an Associate in the law firm of Jacobs, Persinger and Parker, where he drafted documents relating to acquisitions, joint ventures, private placements, leveraged buyouts and debt financings.

Mr. Jacobson earned his BA degree cum laude in English and Sociology from Tulane University. He received an MBA from the Columbia Business School and a JD from American University's Washington College of Law.