

Sep Alavi
Venture Partner
White Star Capital

Sep is a Venture Partner at White Star Capital with over a decade of experience in Financial Services and Capital Markets. He's been investing in privately held early stage tech companies since 2012. His areas of specialization include Fintech, Blockchain and Disruptive Commerce. Building on his background in finance as Managing Director at ICAP New York, Sep has leveraged his success managing high-performing sales and trading teams to help entrepreneurs build meaningful and successful enterprises.

Raised internationally, Sep is trilingual and has developed a global network of professional relationships that informs his investments and advisory work. He graduated with a degree in finance from Concordia University in Montreal, Canada, and lives in New York.

"My number one motive is to help passionate entrepreneurs build scalable companies. White Star Capital's international culture and expertise are invaluable assets and they play an important role in the success of these new companies. It's a privilege to be part of this wonderful team."
