

Carly Ramsey

Director

Control Risks Group

Carly Ramsey is based in Shanghai and leads the political and regulatory risk consulting for Greater China and North Asia. She has a decade of experience in China advising multinationals how to engage the Chinese government and mitigate political and regulatory risk.

Examples of Carly's work includes:

- Provided threat analysis and compliance recommendations for a major global airline regarding China's emerging regulatory framework governing cyber and data security.
- Advised a major MNC in the technology sector on the impact of the US-China trade dispute on their China market entry strategy.
- Advised a major manufacturer on the security and regulatory risks of transporting high-value goods throughout China.

Prior to joining Control Risks, Carly was an Associate Director with APCO Worldwide. She led the Greater China healthcare team to provide advisory, government relations, and corporate communications strategy and execution services to major multinationals, trade associations, and governments.

Carly's comments on China's political developments have appeared in major media outlets, including the Financial Times and Wall Street Journal. She has a master's degree in foreign policy and international security from Georgetown University and a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Western Ontario.
