

Robert Vozzella, CFA
Director, Investments
McGill University

Robert Vozzella is currently the Director, Investments for McGill University's Pension Plan and Endowment. In this role, he analyzes and provides recommendations for asset class allocation, responsible investing, investment manager monitoring and research across both public and private asset classes. He joined McGill in 2019 from Mercer and Pavilion Advisory Group where he worked as part of the equity and fixed income manager research team covering and rating a global set of investment managers. Previously, he held roles in the Treasury and Pension department at Yellow Pages and worked as an investment banker covering US healthcare technologies. Robert graduated from Concordia University with a Bachelor of Commerce with a specialization in Finance and Economics and is currently a CFA Charterholder.