

Katherine Hodsdon

Vice President, Portfolio Manager, ESG
Acadian Asset Management

Katherine rejoined Acadian in 2022 and is a portfolio manager within the Responsible Investing Team. Prior to her current role, Katherine had five years of experience as a portfolio manager within Acadian's Global Equity Research Team as well as various roles within Bank of America Merrill Lynch. She holds an M.S. in mathematics in finance from New York University as well as a B.S. in information & systems engineering and a B.S. in integrated business & engineering from Lehigh University.