

François Trahan

Founding partner

Trahan Macro Research

Center for the Macro Specialist Designation

François Trahan is an economist by training with a master's degree in finance and econometrics. He is widely praised for his differentiated insights into the drivers and dynamics of the marketplace and his unique understanding of the business cycle. In 2016, François was inducted into the Institutional Investor All-America Research Team Hall of Fame after placing first in Portfolio Strategy for ten of the past 12 years. He has also ranked for Quantitative Strategy.

François is currently the founding partner of Trahan Macro Research and the Center for the Macro Specialist Designation. Previously he was a Managing Director at UBS where he led the US Portfolio Strategy effort, and prior to that he was a founder and managing partner of Cornerstone Macro. Previously he was Vice Chairman of Wolfe Trahan & Co., Chief Investment Strategist at International Strategy and Investment Group (ISI), and the Chief Investment Strategist for Bear Stearns & Co. Earlier, he worked for Ned Davis Research and the Bank Credit Analyst Research Group.

François received undergraduate and graduate degrees in Economics from the University of Montreal. He is the co-author of "The Era of Uncertainty: Global Investment Strategies for Inflation, Deflation, and the Middle Ground".