

Dennis Cristallo, CFA
Head of Wealth Management
Kinexys by J.P. Morgan

Dennis Cristallo is the Head of Wealth Management for Kinexys by J.P. Morgan. In this role, Dennis develops blockchain-based solutions to streamline the asset and wealth management business, unlock revenue opportunities and improve our client experience. He also partners closely with J.P. Morgan Private Bank's clients and advisors who have questions about digital assets and blockchain technology.

Prior to this role, Dennis spent 10 years as an Investment Specialist and the Investment Director for J.P. Morgan Alternative Asset Management. During this time, he built and delivered customized portfolios of hedge funds, private credit funds and co-investments for some of the world's most sophisticated institutional investors. He also served on the group's Crypto Research team which sourced and performed due diligence on digital asset hedge funds.

Dennis graduated summa cum laude from Tulane University in 2009 with a B.S.M. He earned a Master of Finance degree from the A.B. Freeman School of Business in 2010, graduating ranked #1 in his class. He also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® (CFA) designation.
